

Standing Still

You already asked the Lord what to do,
Wondering if He will see you through,
You ask, "should I run or should I walk?"
"Should I listen or should I talk?"
"Should I go or should I stop and wait?"
Then you remember that God is never late,
You realize He did not tell you to go,
So you should not move fast or slow,
Begin to seek the Lord to know His will,
Until that time, you must stand still,
Be like a tree planted by the river,
And watch the Lord begin to deliver,
After you have done all to stand,
Just continue to stand with all you can,
The Lord will do all of the rest,
And bring you through this ordained test,
He shall reveal His true purpose and will,
But only while you are standing still.

Copyright©2003 DeMonica D. Gladney